Mayor Stuart Vetoes the Action of the Council.

GRANTING A SALOON LICENSE

To Pierce Kiebler, the East Street Saloonist—The Mayor Still Opposes Saloons in Residence Neighborhoods.

Yesterday Mayor Stuart filed the following document in the city clerk's office, vetoing the action of the council in granting a license to Pierce Kiebler, the East street saloonist:

"By virtue of my office I hereby suspend the operation of and veto the vote and resolution whereby the report of the alderman of the tenth ward, to whom was referred the application and bond of Pierce Kiebler for a saloon license, recommending that said application be granted and that said bond be approved, was adopted at the last session of the common council, for the following reasons:

The place where this saloon is to be located is in a residence neighborhood and a long distance from regular police protection, and so far as I am able to learn, a saloon in this locality is objectionable to a great majority of the residents in that neighborhood—not so much on account of the person who may keep it, but they object to having any saloon at all. An application from this same person was presented and acted on in July last, and at that time I looked up the matter carefully and vetoed the action of the council granting the license. The license was then refused on the ground, not of objection to the party making application, but of the location of the saloon. Nothing has been brought to my notice since that veto was filed to change my views. If any good reason has been presented to the alderman of the ward who makes the recommendation, he certainly has kept it from my knowledge. If the action, granting a license was to one who had been regularly established in business at this point for some time, I should hesitate about filing this veto purely on the ground of its being in a residence neighborhood, but now that licenses have been refused by this council to both parties who had long been established there, and also to two other parties applying since, in the same location, on the ground of its being in a residence neighborhood and with no new light thrown upon the subject, I feel it my duty to abide by my former determination.

W. J. Stuart, Mayor.

Harrington was Discharged.

Herbert Harrington, son of Mayor Harrington of Holland, was discharged by Judge Haggerty yesterday on a charge of non-support, preferred by his wife. Assistant Prosecutor Malcolm argued the matter for some time with the judge on the meaning of the statutes in such cases. The court held that the charge against Harrington could not be sustained. The statute provides that a man who deserts his family, fails to provide for them or leaves them as a public charge, shall be guilty of non-support. He was discharged on the ground that his wife and child had not become a public charge. Mr. Malcolm contended that the statutes provide for three separate and distinct charges while the court held that the three charges must be sustained as one.

Thieves Near Corinth.

Mrs. James W. Lane living near Corinth reported to the sheriff yesterday that a team of horses and a wagon were stolen from her barn Monday night. Some wheat was also stolen from her neighbors. Yesterday morning the team was found hitched on Fourth street in this city but the wheat was not found. The sheriff and his deputies are investigating the matter but so far no clue to the thieves has been obtained.

Until After Election.

The testimony on the part of the people against Jerome Lee and Charles F. Nickerson for keeping their saloons open on Sunday, was read in police court yesterday and the defense was adjourned until November 11 and 10 respectively. The defendants' attorney, George W. Thompson, will be too busy with campaign work to attend to his cases until after election and so for the adjournment on that ground.

Presented the Resolutions.

The Hon. Edwin F. Uhl, George H. White and N. A. Fletcher, composing the committee of the Bar association, named to present resolutions of respect to the memory of the Hon. Isaac H. Parish, presented the resolutions to the United States circuit court yesterday morning. They addressed the court briefly in eulogy of the deceased, after which the resolutions were ordered spread upon the court records.

Arson vs. Arson.

Charles D. Arson and Miss Mary E. Freeman were married at Battle Creek in April, 1879, and October 7, 1890, the wife is alleged to have deserted her husband, and has not returned to him since that date. Arson is now a resident of this city and runs a barber shop at No. 720 South Division street. Charles filed a bill of complaint with the clerk of the circuit court yesterday asking for a divorce.

Roe Escapes the Charge.

The charge of non-support against David F. Roe was not pressed yesterday in police court on motion of the prosecuting attorney. It was found that Roe's wife had begun to receive some of the money in the circuit court and it was not thought advisable to continue the charge of non-support in the police court.

Lynons Held for Trial.

At the examination of J. J. Lyons on a charge of forgery in police court yesterday the testimony of A. O. Croner was taken, who testified the checks signed by him had been forged on Croner Brothers. Lyons was further examined, and was held to the superior court for trial in the sum of $1,000.

The argument in the case of Willard S. Brown against the Grand Rapids Parlor Furniture company was in progress in the United States court yesterday.

Police Court Notes.

The examination of Ed Baxter, on a charge of burglary, was adjourned in police court until this morning. He was arrested for breaking into the residence of John W. Smith at the corner of Sprague street and Shawmut avenue two weeks ago.

Frank Natz, accused of stealing a pair of trousers from a Stocking street barber shop, was convicted yesterday and sentenced to the county jail by Judge Haggerty.

A New Punch for Conductors.

A conductor on a street railway in one of our cities where the bell punch is still in vogue punched the passenger's ticket leisurely and walked back to the platform. The other passenger was rooting there on the rail. To him the conductor spoke:

"Pleasant day?" he said.

"Yes," said the passenger, who was an acquaintance of the conductor.

"Not much car travel on pleasant days," continued the conductor. "People rather walk. Don't make any difference to me, though. I get only so much, many or few."

"It isn't very remunerative to you, is it?" queried the passenger.

"Nope," said the conductor sadly, "not with these punches. What we need in our business is the Corbett punch."

The passenger looked his question.

"Know what that is?" asked the conductor.

"The passenger shook his head.

"It's the kind of a punch Corbett used in New Orleans. Cleaned up $35,000 with it in about two hours and only had to knock down on one passenger," and the conductor sighed as he rang the bell to let the inside passenger get off.—Detroit Free Press.

Of Interest to Athletes.

James Robinson, the athletic trainer at Princeton college, Princeton, N. J., says:

"I have found it imperative to have sure and simple remedies on hand in case of cuts, bruises, strains, sprains, colds, rheumatism, etc. Shortly after entering upon my profession, I discovered such a remedy in Alcock's Porous Plasters. I tried other plasters, but found them too harsh and irritating. Alcock's Porous Plasters give almost instantaneous relief, and their strengthening power is remarkable. In case of work back put two plasters on the small of the back and in a short time you will be capable of doing severe exercise. In 'sprain' and 'distention' races and jumping, the muscles or tendons in the legs and feet sometimes weaken. This can invariably be relieved by cutting the plaster in narrow strips, so as to give free motion, and applying on muscles affected."

A Cholera Scare.
A reported outbreak of cholera at Helonetta, N. J., created much excitement in that vicinity. Investigation showed that the disease was not cholera, but a violent dysentery, which is almost as severe and dangerous as cholera. Mr. Walter Willard, a prominent merchant of Jamesburg, two miles from Helonetta, says Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has given great satisfaction in the most severe cases of dysentery. It is certainly one of the best things ever made. For sale by F. J. Wurzberg, druggist.
